Join the administrators and experienced immersion teachers at Yinghua Academy, the first Chinese immersion charter public school in the U.S., for two days of practical training and discussions on:

- How to survive teaching in U.S. culture;
- How to design curriculum maps and develop concise lesson plans;
- How to teach (a demo lesson);
- How to apply teaching strategies;
- How to manage your classroom;
- How to communicate with parents;
- Where to find resources; and
- Network building.

For more information or registration, please contact Rebecca at rebecca@yinghuaacademy.org or Jennifer at jennifer@yinghuaacademy.org or by calling (651)379-4112.

Funding provided by the World Language Pilot Program Grant
